MIRACLE ON EAST 61st STREET – On May 12th, 2018, approximately 65 individuals came together to perform community service for the benefit of St. Vitus Parish, St. Vitus Village and Joseph House of Cleveland, Inc. The miracle was that 45 of the individuals were from St. Edward High School in Lakewood, Ohio. Staff, Students and parents took off a Saturday morning for a prayer service in our church, short breakfast and then a morning of work: moving clothing, equipment, tables, chairs and other items to the newly remodeled location of JHCI at 6108 St. Clair Ave.; mulching of the rectory courtyard and church parking lot; mulching, weeding and turning over of soil in the back courtyard of St. Vitus Village; and moving various food items to the storage area of parish food pantry in the lower church hall. This volunteer work would have cost approximately $1,250. By Noon the work was completed followed by lunch. St. Vitus parishioners who helped in this work were: Fr. Joseph Boznar, Alex & Mark Hauptman, Mark & Stan Kuhar, Larry & Rudy Sterk, Betty Svekric and Mary Ann Zadell Scafe. We thank Liam Haggerty and Rick Kubrak, St. Edward High School, and Michelle O'Donnell, Director of Operations, JHCI and Tony Fitzgerald of JHCI for coordinating the multiple tasks. This is the second year in a row for such a service day with SEHS benefiting the parish and JHCI. Any individual in need of good clean clothing may call JHCI, 216-431-7200: Wed. and Fri., 11:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. are normal operating hours for JHCI for clothing distribution by appointment only.
